

Finishing Out the Term!!!!

The end of a semester is a hectic time. I will not debate final grades. I will not review past tests (unless they have been taken in the past week). The student should be keeping track to their own scores and, at this point in the term, already addressed any questions about past exams and scores. No last minute arrangements or haggling.